Dear Professionals!

We extend a cordial invitation to participate in the "2nd World Unani Congress" with the theme "Heal by Unani, Heal in India" organised by World Unani Foundation on March 4 to 6, 2023.

The aim of the conference is to provide a platform for eminent researchers, academicians, physicians, traditional medical practitioners, manufacturers & exporters of herbal products, members from the corporate sector, marketing consultants, agricultural sector and stake holders from all over the world.

Advancements in modern sciences and paradigm shift in assessing the therapeutic value of old and existing medical practices often lead to the questioning of traditional approaches. Hence, sustenance of traditional sciences requires strong advocacy. Forums and groups that bring out the continued relevance and nuances of traditional therapies such as Unani medicine create a sure-footed impact over time.

Researchers, academicians, public health experts, economists, physicians, scientists and other leaders.
